Hand-Held Tester – Programming

Menu item 5 on the HHT allows programming of those ATA control modules which require programming. Only upon completion of the programming is the control module operable. The programming is menu driven.

Follow the instructions shown on the HHT display screen.

Possible version coding

Version	Model 202
Country version	X